About us

Painted Wolf Wines is a quality boutique family business producing a range of commercially appealing specialist wines. We work with grape growers in various appellations in South Africa. Our key markets are independent wine merchants, HORECA and small, high quality retail chains. Making our wine from organic and sustainably farmed grapes, and donating around 4% of annual turnover to African wild dog (Painted Wolf) conservation is at the core of our company philosophy. We are looking for quality progressive partners in a number of markets.
